

Archaeology Day Saturday 16th July

Opening times: 10.00 – 5.00

Spaces, people, activities:

Who	Where	When	What
Cathedral Stonemasons	Front lawn	10.00-4.00	Talk and demonstration of stonemasons' craft
Caroline , Hannah	1st gallery	10.00-4.00	Pebble Monster painting
Caroline , Hannah	1st gallery	10.00-4.00	An opportunity to handle Stone-age artefacts
Shop	Shop	10.00-5.00	Stony Trail available free
Conservation Department	Wyndham House – across back lawn	10.00-4.00	Goblet painting Displays of conservation work
Phil Harding (Time Team and Wessex Archaeology)	Back Lawn/ Lecture Hall if wet	10.00 12.00 2.00 3.00	Flint-Knapping arrow-heads etc. Stone-Age style
South Wilts Industrial Archaeology Society	Window seat 2 nd Gallery	10.00-4.00	Display of their work with a focus on the use of stone
Story-teller, Mike O' Leary	Back Lawn/ Pitt-Rivers Gallery if wet.	11.00 12.00 3.00	Stories that grow out of our Museum collections
Margaret, (Wessex Archaeology)	Back lawn/ Lecture Hall if wet	10.00- 4.00	Make a clay gargoyle
Julie Gardiner (Wessex Archaeology)	Lecture Hall	3.00-4.00	Lecture illustrated with slides on Stonehenge
Marine Archaeology	Lecture Hall	10.00-2.45	A video illustrating Marine Archaeology techniques