

The Earhouse, Cranborne presents
Michael O'Leary tells
"Guenevere's Funeral - the long tramping road to Eden"

Sunday 17 July, 6.30. pm

We are delighted that Michael is returning to the Earhouse after an excellent storytelling event in 2003. The Road to Eden is a group of stories based around tracks, green lanes and ancient paths. Michael assures us that if you sit, of an evening, in the garden of the excellent Barge Inn in Honeystreet in the Vale of Pewsey, you might sometimes see the silhouette of Guenevere's Funeral cortege against the evening sky - if you've consumed enough pints of Crop Circle that is! Suitable for all ages - £7 adults, £3.50 under 16's. Tickets available from: East Dorset Heritage Trust, Allendale House, Hanham Road, Wimborne Minster, Dorset, BH21 1AS. Telephone 01202 888992 to confirm availability before sending a cheque payable to 'A.T.C. Friends Account' (enclosing S.A.E.).
